Mind Your Manors

MURDER MYSTERY DINNER

Lord Cluckington of Cluckington Hall has recently purchased an exceptional work of art. It's going to be unveiled tonight at his stately manor home by the artist himself. Dove the maid is skulking around in a mood, and something seems to be bothering Arthur the art connoisseur. None of that is a huge problem though. What might be an issue is the dead body in the master bedroom. It's up to you to solve this classy upstairs/downstairs style mystery!
